

Call for Papers

The WOLFE workshop: The Department of Economics at the University of York invites paper submissions for the 8th Workshop on Labour and Family Economics (WOLFE). We welcome papers in any area of Labour and Family Economics including Human Capital Formation, Child Development, Health Economics, Applied Microeconometrics, Household Economics, Gender Identity and Norms, Labour Market Outcomes, Policy Evaluation and Education.

WOLFE is a small and focused two-day workshop and we ask that participants attend all sessions. There are no registration fees and the University of York will pay for all catering during the workshop and the workshop dinner on 4th September (which all speakers are invited to attend). In addition, we will provide financial support for economy class travel and accommodation, but the expenses will be capped.

The workshop will take place at the University's central York location. For more information, please visit the website.

Keynote Speakers:

Sonia Bhalotra
(University of Warwick)

Damon Clark
(University of California, Irvine)

Paper submission procedure: Please submit an electronic version of the paper or extended abstract (PDF format) no later than 30th April 2023. Authors will be notified by June 2023.

Scientific Committee: Professor Cheti Nicoletti, Professor Emma Tominey, Dr. Jack Britton, Dr. Ines Lee, Dr. Khushboo Surana, Dr. Simon Weber.

Contact: For general inquiries please contact wolfe-workshop@york.ac.uk